About This Workspace

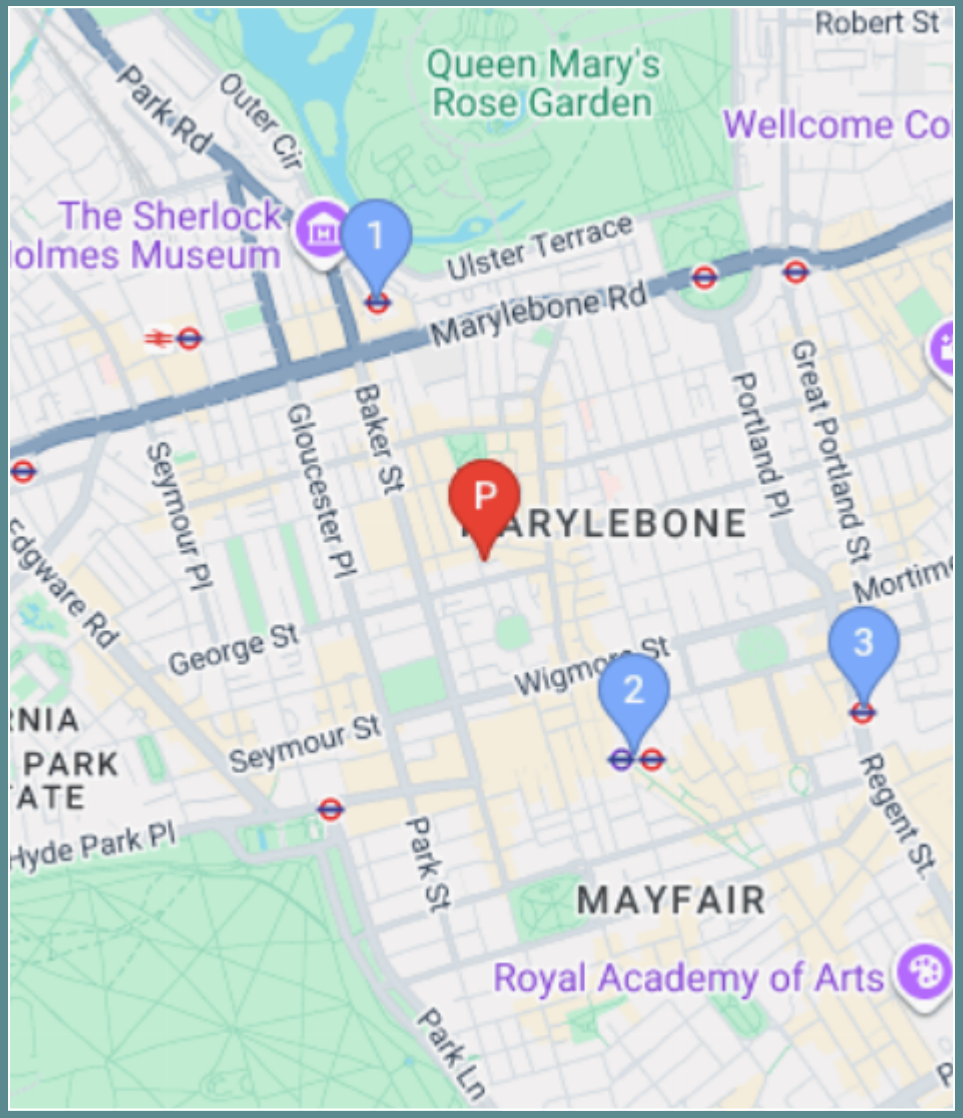

The fit-out is the reason to come and look. Oak floors, Crittall-style glass partitions, a boardroom and a second meeting room, a kitchen with a farmhouse table, and two WCs that are yours alone. The second floor is self-contained in a recently refurbished corner building where Manchester Street meets Blandford Street, with a reception in reclaimed timber, a coded door and a lift. Baker Street station is four minutes' walk, Marylebone High Street two. It has been dressed for a firm that brings clients up, and right for one that wants the first impression made before anyone speaks.
