About This Workspace

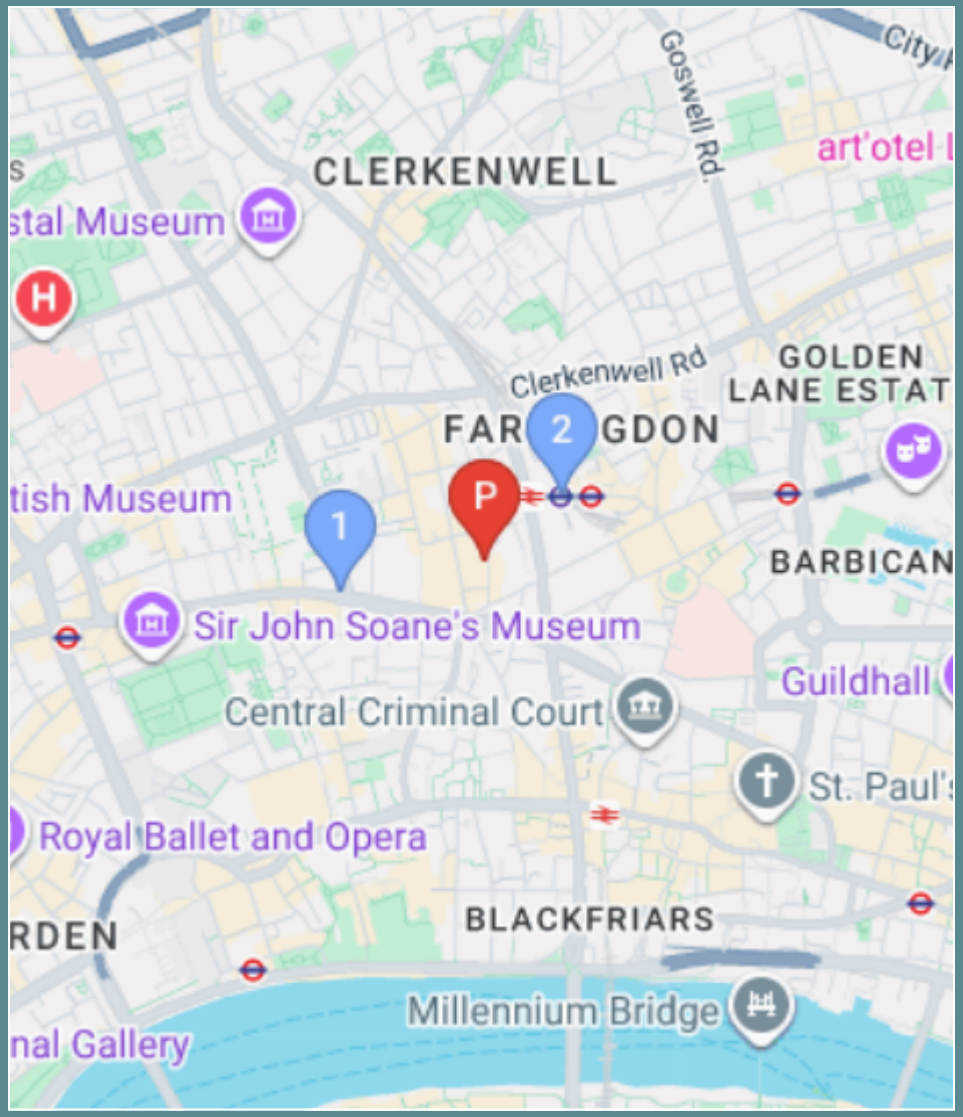

Ely Place is a gated cul-de-sac with its own beadles, and the quiet is real. Audrey House is the largest building on it, beside a 13th-century church. The front is late 19th century; behind it the building was rebuilt, with the atrium cut open for a new staircase that brings daylight down through the floors. This part of the fourth floor was refurbished recently: open plan, furnished, cabled, several meeting rooms, a proper kitchen. Chancery Lane is about five minutes on foot, Leather Lane market nearer. Right for a team that wants to be left alone, with the gates doing the gatekeeping.
